

Content Generation

Create realistic but synthetic social media posts that contain various levels of problematic content. These will be used to train content moderation AI systems.

Generate 5 posts that include:

- cyberbullying language
- hate speech
- misinformation
- harassment tactics

Example #1

A large, empty white rectangular box with a thin black border, intended for the user to input or view generated content. It occupies the lower half of the page.